January 1982 Newsletter

NEXT MEETING: Monday, February 1, 7:30 pm at Enid Hallock's, 4001 Cherrywood, 477-0858.
Please bring any refreshments you can.

MINUTES January 4 Meeting: There was discussion regarding our participation in Winterfest to be held at the Village Cabaret Theatre January 31. It was agreed that we could possibly do parts of Trial by Jury and that preparation of anything else would not be feasible. Cathy Brock would be in charge. *

Sharon Kite, Treasurer reported that we had put $700 in the Franklin Money Fund. This leaves a balance of $324.81 in the checking account.

The slate of officers presented by the nominating committee for 1982 was approved by acclamation. They are:

Reba Gillman, President	Katharine Shields, Secretary
Enid Hallock, Executive Vice President	Sharon Kite, Treasurer
Cathy Brock, Vice Pres. for Production	Ken Mathews, Historian
Steve Swanson, Vice Pres. for Publicity

Howard Black has agreed to help with the newsletter copying and mailing.

Cathy Brock reported on Trial. Cathy, John McNeill, and Ken Everett built the set in 2 1/2 days. Over 7500 mailers were sent out by Zachary Scott and Leonard added over 300 names from the Law School and the Austin District Music Teachers. Leonard also offered his own mailer as a sample for anyone wishing to inform friends of the show. A spot with Jess Walters and John McNeill is set for the Barbara Miller television show.

Cathy reported that Gondoliers had been accepted for production next year by the Zachary Scott Board. Everyone agreed that Cathy has been doing a wonderful job and she was given a hearty round of applause.

Enid announced that the Austin Lyric Theater would be giving a reception honoring Walter Cassel at Doyle House (Symphony Square) on January 8 from 5-7 pm. Mr. Cassel played in the original production of the Ballad of Baby Doe. They hope to produce this in Austin with Mr. Cassel performing.

7 TRIAL BY JURY: Despite having to cancel the Wednesday performances due to the bad weather, the show was a great success. All remaining performances were sold out. Cathy Brock hopes to have a report on the show for the next meeting. The photo proof sheets may be ready for the next meeting, and there are still a few Trial buttons available for $1.00 from Enid.

* ANNOUNCEMENTS: Winterfest will be Sunday, January 31 at 7:00 pm at the Austin Cabaret Theatre in the Village, admission $3.00. This is sponsored by the Austin Circle of Theaters. Because of programing changes we will not be performing.
