

GILBERT & SULLIVAN

SOCIETY OF AUSTIN

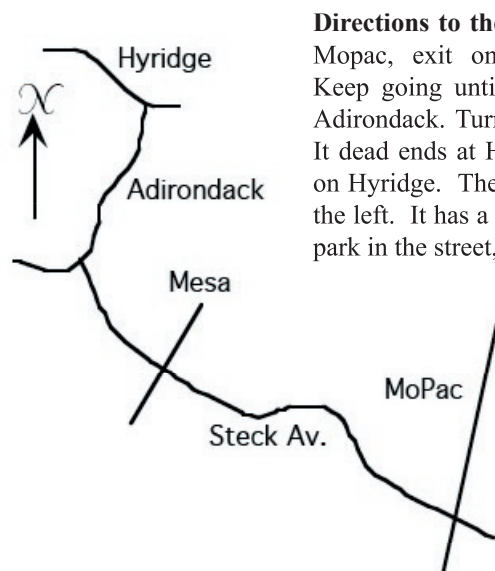

SEPTEMBER 2003 NEWSLETTER

September Musicale Monday September 8, 2003, 7:30 pm

At Benny & Nancy Jay's House
4305 Hyridge Drive
343-8408

Please bring munchies!

Libby Weed and Janette Jones have planned a delightful program. Each singer will sing one favorite song that suits his or her voice and one song from Gilbert & Sullivan. Halfway through the program Len Gillman will take the stage with a few of his favorite piano pieces and some G&S items. Singers are Kristin Burritt, Kristina Horacek, June Julian, Frank Delvy, Holton Johnson, and Kert Peterson. Gloria Kim will accompany. Start the season right with good music, good company, and good food!

Directions to the Jays' house: From Mopac, exit on Steck going west. Keep going until Steck dead ends at Adirondack. Turn right on Adirondack. It dead ends at Hyridge Dr. Turn left on Hyridge. The house is the third on the left. It has a circular drive. Please park in the street, not on the drive.

Good News!

We made enough money on Pirates to pay our bills and pay back our generous underwriters, Chris Buggé and Larry Shepley. We hope this will inspire future backing from underwriters, not necessarily as large as this year's.

B. IDEN PAYNE NOMINATIONS

We are proud and happy to announce that our production of Pirates has received six nominations in five categories for the B. Iden Payne Awards:

- Outstanding Production of a Musical
- Outstanding Director of a Musical: Rafe MacPhail
- Outstanding Musical Director: Jeffrey Jones-Ragona
- Outstanding Actor in a Musical: Russell Gregory Holton Johnson
- Outstanding Actress in a Musical: Claire Vangelisti

Congratulations to all! These attentions are well meant! I mean well deserved, and they confirm our unbiased opinion that this was a wonderful show. Members of Austin Circle of Theaters (ACOT) will vote on the nominations, and the results will be announced at the Awards Ceremony on Monday September 29 at 7:30 pm in the Scottish Rite Theater at 18th and Lavaca. Save the date, and plan to be there!

IMPORTANT NOTE: I have just found out that it is not too late to join ACOT, get a ballot and VOTE. This can be done through September 14th. Call ACOT at 247-2531; or mail in your membership to ACOT, 701 Tillery St., Ste. 9, Austin TX 78702. Price: Individual Membership – $36; Senior or Student – $26; Couple (2 votes) – $52.

Goodbye

I have resigned as President, and Brad Merrell has been elected to take my place; Bill Hatcher has been elected Executive Vice-President. I decided to leave the Presidency at the end of 2002, but I'm glad I stayed until Pirates was over, for it was so successful that a job which I enjoyed anyway was even more enjoyable. Brad is enthusiastic, capable, and knowledgeable about G&S and musical theater — as Executive Vice-President he had a large role in the success of Pirates, too.

Our Bylaws give the duty of electing officers to the Board of Directors. The Board also fills vacancies in its membership between annual meetings. To make it easier for the Board to select a President, I also resigned as a Board member — as it happened, the new President and Vice-President were already Directors. I certainly will be working for The Society whether I'm a Director or not.

I made mistakes, but I also did some things well. One innovation I am happiest about is our series of concert versions of G&S operas. A concert version means that costumes and stage business are minimal, sets are mostly non-existent, and our biggest expenses are for an accompanist. But we still strive for quality. The concert format lets us put on lesser-known works, since we do not need to recoup major costs. We have now presented our premier performances of Princess Ida and The Grand Duke. And what successes! We began charging a small entrance fee when the crowd at Princess Ida proved far too large for comfort. Our next concert performance will be Iolanthe in October; you will enjoy it!

To All who Worked on The Pirates of Penzance:

Dear Friends,

Alice and I are in our little hideaway on Rockledge Cove, furnished so generously by Jim and Sue Caldwell, surrounded by open suitcases as we work on what former D'Oyly Carte tenor Geoffrey Shovelton referred to in his touring days as "the three-dimensional jigsaw puzzle" of packing. We're confident that the bags will close, but we haven't quite arrived at The Moment of Truth.

But we know as truth that this has been an extraordinary summer for us when we think back over the last five weeks, dedicated as they were to The Pirates of Penzance.

Thank you—each one of you—for your contributions to the production that delighted so many. It was such a pleasure to work once again with Jeffrey and so many others in bringing one of these century-plus-old treasures of musical theatre before such enthusiastic audiences.

I am going to resist the temptation of referring individually to so many of you—cast, producer, designers, orchestra, backstage personnel, front-of-house staff, board members—for I've tried to express to each of you individually my gratitude for your dedication and contributions to the show. Please know that I will always treasure the memories of this production not only for its effectiveness on stage but also for the incredible bonds of friendship that it created among members of the production company—new and old.

Warmest wishes from Alice and me for a lovely summer—"and even after"!

Yours sincerely,

News of Members

Byron Arnason is a long time member although he no longer lives in Austin. He arranged his work assignment so that he was in Austin during the entire run of Pirates and attended every single performance, seated front row center for most of them. The cast loved his active enjoyment and looked for him every night.

Bob Wall, Ex-Lord High Pianist, came to Austin from his present home in San Francisco to attend the gala performance of our Pirates. His presence added to the celebratory spirit as he greeted old friends. His e-mail address, which he promised to many, is: robertewall@yahoo.com.
